FALL SEASON OF PERFORMANCES:

September 24+25, 2010 (Purchase College, SUNY)

Early October, 2010 (New York City Venue TBA)

Reverb Dance in partnership with Purchase College Conservatory of Dance announces a call for applicants for its Reverb Choreographic Project. Reverb Dance's mission is aimed at fostering the creative process of original works by renowned choreographers from the United States and abroad. In this new initiative launched at Purchase College, choreographers are given the opportunity to work, explore and research new material in the beautiful studios of Purchase College's Conservatory of Dance, just 30 minutes north from Manhattan during a week long residency. The culmination of the project includes a season of performances of new works created during the residency at Purchase College and in New York City. Seven choreographers will be chosen. Reverb Dance is committed to working with artists of diverse experiences and backgrounds.

The residency includes 6 days of rehearsal (5 hours daily) and a work-in-progress showing. The projected daily schedule is:

10:00-12:00	Dancers' Ballet Class
1:00-3:30	1st workshop period
3:30-4:30	Break
4:30-7:00	2nd workshop period

They will have full access to the Purchase College campus Library and additional studio time for individual research etc., as well as full access to the Purchase College Fitness Center and swimming pool for $20 a week (optional).

We encourage the choreographers to use their rehearsal time as a workshop for both creative and choreographic exploration.

Starting on September 5, 2010, 12 additional hours of rehearsals will be offered to the selected choreographers to remount their projects. A presentation of the completed works will take place in the Dance Theater Lab at Purchase College on September 24+25, 2010 and in early October at a New York City Venue (TBA). Selected choreographers will receive a $600 honorarium payable on the first day of the residency.

Dancers participating in the Reverb Choreographic Project will be selected during two auditions taking place on February 28, 2010 New York City Venue (TBA) and at the Purchase College Conservatory of Dance. These auditions will be led by the selected Reverb choreographers and the producers. During the residency dancers will receive a daily ballet class in addition to their rehearsal period.

Now in its sixth year, Reverb Dance has presented the work of 50 innovative dance makers to over 3000 audience members in five sold out seasons in New York City. Our mission is to offer a tightly curated event that facilitates an international exchange of ideas and showcases a broad spectrum of compelling works of diverse perspectives. Past participants have included up and coming and established contemporary artists Andrea Miller, Kyle Abraham, Jody Oberfelder, Stephen Pier, Patrick Corbin, Gregory Dolbashian, Jonathan Riedel, Lane Gifford, Adam Barruch, Nelly van Bommel, Bradley Shelver, Sidra Bell and Ofelia Loret de Mola.
